WHO ARE YOUR TRAINERS?

Ester Dross—Independent Consultant & Lead Trainer

Ms Dross has been active in the humanitarian and development sector for over 30 years. After a long country-based experience with the International Committee of the Red Cross, she has specialised for the last 15 years in the field of sexual violence with a specific expertise in the prevention and monitoring of allegations of sexual exploitation, abuse and harassment on behalf of various INGOs, NGOs and their partners. She works as an independent expert, contributing to the creation and improvement of numerous guides, e-learning tools, trainings and policies in this field.

Winnie Kutamba – Co-facilitator

Winne is currently the Accountability coordinator with Finn Church Aid in Uganda, focusing on research and consulting on matters related to PSEA/Child Safeguarding (CSG)/Child Protection (CP) in the organisation. She is a seasoned humanitarian professional with two decades of experience in development and aid work with various International Non-Governmental Organisations in Uganda. Winne has a strong background in safeguarding, risk management, quality, and accountability and has also been involved in project development and management taking up leadership roles in different contexts throughout her career.
