

Short Bio

Dr. Markus Moke is director of department of quality assurance and training at Aktion Deutschland Hilft e.V. He worked predominantly in field missions to the Middle East, Asia and Latin America.

Markus Moke holds a PhD in Communication Sciences, International Politics and Psychology. Between 2007 and 2012 he was Director of the Joint European Master's Programme in International Humanitarian Action (NOHA Master's Programme) at University of Bochum, Germany.

As Joint Sphere Focal Point for Germany, Markus Moke is a certified Sphere trainer and CHS trainer. He edited the first German version of the Sphere Handbook on Quality Standards in International Humanitarian Aid (2011) and coordinated the second German edition of the 2018 Sphere Handbook.

Markus Moke is member of the executive board and academic director of the academy for humanitarian action (aha), established by Aktion Deutschland Hilft, the Institute for International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict (University of Bochum) and the University of Applied Sciences Münster. Moreover, he is member of the executive board of the Emergency Appeal Alliance (EAA).

Among others, Markus Moke is senior lecturer in different university courses. His main fields of teaching are on Programme and Project Design, Management, Standards and Quality Instruments, and Human Resource Management. He regularly provides training on Sphere and CHS for Humanitarian Organisations.